Friday, March 17, 1865. Union Caucus.

The great importance of the coming Spring Elections makes it important that able and reliable Union men be selected for the various offices of the Township and Corporation. Many Cities and Towns in the State have already made their nominations, and that the Corporation of Fremont and the Township of Sandusky may not be behind, notice is hereby given that a Union Osucus will be held at the Engine House to-morrow, (Saturday) March 18, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of placing in nomina-Peace, for the Township.

ALL HAIL NEW HAMPSHIRE. The State election in New Hampshire took Union Triumph by an increased majority .-Frederick Smith, Union candidate for Governor, has about 6,000 majority-a gain of 500 since last year. All three of the Union candidates for Congress are elected-a Union gain of one. The Council and Legislature are almost unanimously Union. Thus conspiciously opens the political campaign for 1865. It is a fair indication of the sentiment of the people of the whole country. It is an endorsement of the Administration, and shows the unswerving determination of the people to crush out rebellion at all hazards and at all sacrifices.

The above elections all transpired in the State of New York. They show that the people are true to themselves and to their country.
